

Deepen Collaboration

Keynote

DC-KN-11 – Courageously Compassionate Conversations: How to Talk About Difficult Topics with Skill and Grace

Delivery Format

Live online or live in-person.

Who Should Attend?

Leaders and individuals who want to learn how to have courageously compassionate conversations, including:

- CEOs
- Managers
- Salespeople
- Consultants
- Anyone who wants to improve their ability to have difficult conversations

Duration

60 minutes (including a 10 min Q&A).

Keynote Aim

To help leaders and individuals understand the importance of courageous and compassionate conversations and learn how to have these conversations with skill and grace.

What It Covers

- What is a courageously compassionate conversation?
- Why are courageously compassionate conversations important?
- The benefits of having courageously compassionate conversations
- The challenges of having courageously compassionate conversations
- How to have courageously compassionate conversations
- Tips for having courageous and compassionate conversations in specific situations